Dear Parent/Guardian

Year 13 now only have seven weeks of school left until they go on study leave on Friday 24 May. This is a crucial time for the students as they prepare for their final exams, and it is incredibly important that they really commit to their studies over the remaining weeks. In order to support your son/daughter's over these final weeks, all subjects are putting on a range of revision sessions that will take place, before school, at lunchtimes and after school, and I cannot stress enough the importance of attending as many of these sessions as possible.

I have also enclosed a copy of the Easter revision programme, and as you will see, there are a lot of sessions running over the two-week period. I will be speaking to Year 13 about the importance of these sessions and the expectation is that unless there is a genuine reason, they will attend as many sessions as they can, and I would really appreciate your support in reinforcing this with your son/daughter.

Year 13 have worked very hard over the last eighteen months and I am confident that if they take advantage of all the support on offer over the remaining weeks, they will be very successful in the summer.

If you have any concerns about your son/daughter over the next few months, please do not hesitate to contact me at the school.

Your sincerely

David Leach
